

Program Coordinator, Amman, Jordan

Vision Hope International e.V. (VHI)

Vision Hope International e.V. is looking for committed support to accompany and further develop its projects and country program in Jordan and the wider MENA region.

Vision Hope is a values-based international humanitarian organization supporting women, children, and their families in crisis-affected regions across the Middle East. In addition to emergency relief, we place strong emphasis on sustainable, long-term development projects. These are developed and implemented together with local communities. People with hope change the world.

Program Coordination Jordan (m/f/d)

Location: Amman, Jordan (where VHI Jordan Country Office and VHI Regional Office are located)

Part-time position (20h/week)

Start date: Q4 2026 / by arrangement

Key Responsibilities:

- Coordinating and accompanying ongoing VHI projects in Jordan and the region
- Working closely with local partner organizations and the VHI program team
- Supporting the development of new project ideas and funding proposals
- Monitoring project activities and supporting reporting and coordination processes
- Participating in meetings with institutional and private donors, NGOs, Ministries, Embassies, and other relevant stakeholders;
- Representing Vision Hope within relevant local networks and coordination forums
- Possibly occasional travel to Germany and/or project countries

Your Profile:

We are looking for a person who brings professional experience, initiative, and a strong commitment to humanitarian and development work. You should have:

- Current residence in Amman / Jordan
- Fluency in written and spoken English
